

Accompanying a Young Learners candidate in a Speaking test

If you are attending a Young Learner Speaking test in the role of accompanying adult, please follow this guidance to ensure the test runs smoothly:

- Please stay quiet and do not interrupt the test or do anything that might distract the candidate
- Don't talk to the candidate or Speaking Examiner during the test
- Don't try to help the candidate with the test
- Don't bring your mobile phone, tablet or any other electronic devices into the test room – these are not allowed for security reasons
- Please be on time – the tests cannot be delayed if you are late
- Please remember that the content of the test and the details of any candidate's performance are confidential and should not be discussed with anyone
- Where possible, please sit to one side or behind the child, to minimise any possible distraction.
